

Students!

Q&A panel:

Q: What would you like to do on Tuesday,
May 24, 2011?

A. Go to school?

B. Go to Rhode Island's 3rd Annual Dare to Dream Student Leadership Conference at the URI campus, where you can...

Dare to Dream

www.ritap.org/MyTransition

Dare to Dream

Student Leadership
Conference 2011

INVITATION TO ATTEND

Tuesday, May 24, 2011
8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Student Memorial Union
University of Rhode Island
Kingston, RI

Students!

- Meet other students just like you from all over Rhode Island.
- Learn about what you can do after high school, whether that's planning for college, starting your career or becoming a leader.
- Find out what tools you need to succeed in the college or career that you choose.
- Hear about other students who have Dared to Dream, and who have realized their dreams!
- Get a free backpack, enjoy lunch on a college campus and win fabulous prizes!

What do you have to do?

Just take home this brochure and school trip packet (your teacher can give it to you), get the packet signed, and bring them back to you teacher.

There's limited space for this free conference, so hurry and register fast!

And we'll see you at URI!

Teachers!

Register Now!

Bring your students to Rhode Island's 3rd Annual Dare to Dream Student Leadership Conference:

When: Tuesday, May 24, 2011, 8am-4pm

Where: Student Memorial Union
University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI

Why: This conference—led by students, for the benefit of students—will motivate and inspire your students to learn the value of self-advocacy, teamwork and leadership. It will build on all you've taught them, and the student presenters will dare your students to dream of a bright and meaningful future for themselves.

How can your students participate?

1. Share this flyer with your students to get them excited about attending the conference.
2. Print out the photo release from www.ritap.org/transition under the Upcoming Events Section to take home and share with their family.
3. Include the appropriate school trip permission form.
4. Register your students by going online to www.ritap.org/transition and clicking on the registration link for Dare to Dream under the Upcoming Events tab.
5. Bring your students to URI on May 24th and Dare to Dream!

Free registration, but limited spaces, so don't delay!

Parents!

Student presenters who have succeeded in navigating the challenges of getting jobs, attending college, and living in their communities will share their stories, and workshops throughout the day will teach students how they can get the tools they will need to succeed.

After attending Dare to Dream, students will feel empowered to realize a bright and meaningful future for themselves.

How can your student participate?

1. Sign both the photo release form, and your child's school trip permission form.
2. Have your child return the signed forms to their teacher.

There is limited registration for this free conference, so don't delay.

To learn more about the Dare to Dream Initiative

Please join us for:

What: The Dare to Dream Initiative Parent Night

When: Monday, May 23, 2011, 6-8pm

Where: TollGate High School
575 Centerville Rd
Warwick, Rhode Island

If you need more information, please contact Deb Golding at (401) 222-5954 or deb.golding@health.ri.gov.